

2012 Annual Report to Donors

A Message from the President and Board Chairman

During this past year, the Liberty Lutheran Family of Services has worked together to move into a future that is responsive to the needs of the clients, residents and families we serve.

In spite of significant reimbursement changes and government funding shortages, Liberty Lutheran has continued to have a keen focus on providing a continuum of services that are responsive to the diverse needs of the people we serve.

The addition of The Village at Penn State, in State College, PA, brings new options for retirement living and our first University Based Retirement Community.

Our partnership of the Lutheran Community at Telford and Liberty at Home celebrates our mutual heritage and commitment to older adults, and the ongoing work to transform Mary J. Drexel gives us a glimpse of the new, innovative services planned for this community. Growth requires the long term commitment of many individuals.

The tireless efforts and generosity of our board and committee members, congregations, donors and volunteers continues to motivate our dedicated staff serving the most vulnerable among us.

Liberty Lutheran is blessed with your support and the many forms of generosity you offer to the people we serve throughout Pennsylvania. Thank you for joining us as we make a vital difference in our ministry and mission.

A Gift from the Heart

Pat Stanley, Director of the West Philadelphia Senior Community Center (WPSCC), learned the importance of giving time, skills and resources from her parents and grandparents.

“My parents and grandparents didn’t have a lot, but they always felt that giving was important. I remember seeing my mother knit long white bandages to send to Lutheran World Relief for lepers. She always talked to us about what she was doing and why it was important,” recalls Pat.

“I feel blessed and want to share the talents and skills I have to better the lives of others. I can’t imagine not helping others.”

Located in the third-poorest legislative district in Pennsylvania, residents living near the Center experience intimidating crime rates, and live in sub-par housing.

Although Pat sees the many daily challenges members face, she also sees the resilience of this community.

With the support of her husband Tom Lackman, Pat frequently contributes to the organization. During their courtship, Pat and Tom learned they shared a love of music, drama and a commitment of giving to others. “When we married we agreed that contributing our time and money was a priority. Tom knows how important my work is to me and gives his time as a volunteer at special events and even taught a workshop at the Center.” Despite funding cuts, WPSCC continues to offer a breakfast and lunch program, provide food and utility vouchers for heat, electric and water, and help members apply to the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program when appropriate. “If we can get someone some food to help them get to the end of the month, or help them with a repair to their home, it makes a world of difference,” Pat said.

“I feel blessed and want to share the talents and skills I have to better the lives of others.”

The center also provides members with regular health screenings and offers a variety of educational and fitness classes and many social events. WPSCC members are supported in their volunteerism, and frequently give their time and talents to others.

“Our members have worked hard their entire lives. It is our privilege to offer them the opportunities they have never had before.”

Throughout my experience with Liberty Lutheran, I am amazed at the superb level of care provided for such a diverse group of individuals. It is rewarding to hear the many stories that demonstrate compassion, creativity, and collaboration; the essential elements of our caring communities.

This is an exciting time to be a part of the Liberty Lutheran Family of Services. Plans are underway to begin fundraising to renovate our senior communities, bringing the latest advances in senior care to enrich the lives of our residents. There will also be an effort to strengthen our endowment, allowing us to better serve our children and families in need and provide benevolent care for seniors.

Thank you again for your generosity, which helps to provide care for so many and supports the work of Liberty Lutheran.

The Legacy Society was established to recognize the generosity of all contributors to Liberty Lutheran’s Planned Giving programs.

Pete J. Gutekunst,
Chair,
Liberty Lutheran
Advancement Committee

When you contemplate leadership, service and giving; it's not what you have or what you've accomplished, it's what you have given back that really matters.

Liberty Lutheran launched the Vital Difference Fund, a fund that supports the needs of more than 50,000 people served by Liberty Lutheran this year. As a donor and volunteer, I have appreciated hearing the compelling stories about the children, families and seniors who gratefully express their appreciation for the compassionate and skilled care from staff dedicated to this service.

Whether you are connected to the senior communities, children and families, refugees, or providing disaster relief for hurricane and flood victims this year, contributions to the Vital Difference Fund provide essential care and assistance to individuals and families in our community. So, thank you to the thousands of Liberty Lutheran donors and volunteers who enable us to continue and improve our very important mission of improving lives from the very early stages of life, through the many stages of aging.

"We've been interested in the important services provided by Lutheran social ministry organizations for many years, and are proud to continue our support of Liberty Lutheran's charitable work."

Congregations and Faith-Based Organizations

ACTS Covenant Fellowship

“Oktoberfest is a fun way to bring together our church and community for a good cause. Lutheran Disaster Response is also about bringing people together to help others, and that’s really what we’re about as a congregation.”
