

Southeastern PA
Voluntary Organization
Active in Disaster

Spring is Here, and We are Ready to Welcome Back Rebuild Volunteers!

Where: The Eastwick Neighborhood of Philadelphia (near the airport and Heinz Refuge)

What: Drywall, painting, flooring

When: Now Scheduling for Spring and Summer 2023! Single day opportunities are available (especially Thursdays), and multiple day opportunities. Housing is available.

How: Contact Volunteer Coordinator Sharon Sgriccia, isaiasrecoveryvolunteers@gmail.com

Since Tropical Storm Isaias hit, we've welcomed 78 volunteer teams to Eastwick. Along with local contractors and community leaders who keep it all moving, we've together assisted 24 families. Over the winter, contractors have been working to install doors and windows and the finish work is ready for volunteers on the final 10 or so properties.

EUNR (Eastwick Unmet Needs Roundtable) Members Eastwick United CDC, Eastwick Friends and Neighbors Coalition, UCC Disaster Ministries, The Salvation Army, The Elevated Studio, Eastern PA Conference of the United Methodist Church, Lutheran Disaster Response. Philadelphia OEM is also an active participant. The EUNR is a committee of Southeastern Pennsylvania VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster).

